

SDG INVESTMENTS GmbH is a dynamically growing financial services company aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations. Our clients are companies with sustainable business models as well as institutional investors. We bring companies and investors together via the SDG INVESTMENTS[®] matching platform and the SDG pro digital order book. As a corporate finance boutique, we also structure customized finance and investment products.

We are looking for a candidate for the following role:

Intern or working student – Corporate Finance (f/m/d)

Full or part time (20 to 40 hours per week) in Frankfurt am Main.

Your tasks

As an intern, you will support our team in its daily work:

- Support in structuring and marketing of financing for sustainable projects and companies
- Analysis and research of information on companies and the markets in which they operate
- Develop and administrate Excel-based cash flow models
- Create teasers and company presentations for outreach to investors
- Create and edit online content for website and social media
- Gather relevant information from regular finance newsletters

Your profile

- You study business, economics, finance, or a related subject, or recently successfully completed your studies
- Ideally, you already have some practical experience in the financial industry
- You are proficient in Microsoft Office products, especially Excel and PowerPoint
- You are characterized by reliability, curiosity, pragmatism, and the ability to work independently
- Strong interest in both, sustainability and capital market topics
- Practical experience in marketing, social media and content management is an advantage
- Fluent in German and English
- Availability of at least 3 months – the longer the better

Do you recognize yourself in this profile? And you are interested in making an active contribution to our growth story in the field of sustainable finance? Then, we are looking forward to receiving your complete application documents to jobs@sdg-investments.com. Please also indicate your availability.