

To support our company growth, our team is looking for an immediate start of an:

Intern or working student - Marketing (m/f/d)

full or part time (20 - 40 hours per week)

based in Frankfurt am Main or Berlin

About us:

SDG INVESTMENTS GmbH is a dynamically growing financial services company aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations. Our clients are companies with sustainable business models as well as institutional investors. We bring companies and investors together via the SDG INVESTMENTS® matching platform and the SDG pro digital order book. As a corporate finance boutique, we also structure customized finance and investment products.

Your tasks:

- Creation and distribution of content for different communication channels (esp. website, press and social media)
- Creation of information and marketing materials for products and projects
- User evaluation of our communication channels
- Content maintenance - texts, images and videos - in a content management system

Your profile:

- You are studying business administration, economics, media design, communications or a related field of study, preferably with a focus on marketing
- Initial practical experience in corporate communications, marketing, journalism or similar fields
- Experience with content management systems (e.g. Typo3, Drupal or WordPress) and social media channels (esp. LinkedIn) is of advantage
- Enjoy writing and developing creative ideas
- Independent way of working combined with resilience, reliability, creativity, curiosity and pragmatism
- Strong interest in sustainability and capital market topics
- Confident handling of MS Office applications (especially Word and PowerPoint)
- Fluent in German and English

We offer:

Varied tasks with own responsibilities in a small, dynamic team. We offer flat hierarchies, a relaxed working atmosphere, flexible working hours and a job with sustainability impact.

Do you recognize yourself in this profile and are you interested in making an active contribution to our growth story in the field of sustainable financing? Then send us your complete application documents to jobs@sdg-investments.com.